THUESDAY EVENT DIC MBER 4.

of the rapid growth of our American cities as merely incidental to the setil ment of a new country, and to regard the European cities as ald and s ations sy. It is true that their nuclei are ancient, but, so far as the greater part of their buil -up area is con cerned, they are almost, or quite as new, as the American cities. They, like our own population centers, have grown unpre-cedemodly in recent decades, as the result of transportation and industria! systems. Thus, London of to-lay is five times as large as it was at the on-cloy of the prisent century. From 900 000 at that time, the condition of London grew to 1,500,000 in 1830, and by 1855 it had increased to 2 500 000. Since 1855 it has more than doubled. The present sovereign has witnessed a gain of two hundred per cent. or more sloce she began to reign. There are three or four dwe ling-houses for every one that was visible at the date of her coronstion. In the past forty years from two thousand to two thousand five hundred miles of new streets have been formed to London. Who, studying the growth of foreign cities, can doubt the continued growth of our own? London is not an exception. All the other great towns of England have grown up as if by magic within this century. The same statement ap-plies to those of the Continent. Paris is five times as large as it was in the year 1800; Berlin has grown much more rapidly than Paris; Vienna has expanded marvelucity since 1840. This is a degression; but I shall continue it enough further to remark that an examination of the causes which have built up these European centers easily justifies the judgment that none if our twenty leading American chies has begun to approach its maximum size.- November Century.

THE POOR OF LONDON .- The following is an extract from a paper real by Mi-s Octavia H l in Landon before the charity sccieties. 'I am awed when I think what our impa lent charity is doing to the poor of London. Men, who should hold up their heads as self-respecting fathers of families, learning to sing like beggars in the stress, all because we give penalss. Taose who might have a little fund in the savings. banks discouraged because the spenthrift is at least as abundantly helped when the time of need comes Women standing gossiping or quarreling, dirty and draggled, about the doorsteps while we are cooking at echool for their chiedren the diener they ebou d be preparing each in the tidy home; others going out to work because we are providing the creche instead of leaving the care of the baby to the mother.
"Is family life forgotten, that we seem determined to set up all manner of great in-stitutions with charitable subscriptions, instead of encouraging each member of the family to do his or her work? There is hardly a sin, le necessity of life we do not now balf take upon curself the duty of pro viding-coal tickets, bread tickets, 'linket charities, free breakfasts, dinners under cost price, boot charities, free medical attendance, free lodging in refuges, free schooling free convalement and free holidays in the summer for the children. What is there that we do expect a father and unother to provide for their children?"
